

Statement of our Aim

Giovenco Industries in dealing with personal information will respect individual rights and endeavour to meet all requirements of the Commonwealth Privacy Act.

Statement of our Collection & Storage Policy

It is Giovenco Industries policy to only collect information which is necessary for it to fulfill its core business aims and to collect such information directly from the individual concerned where possible.

Giovenco Industries will inform the individual why the information is being collected, the types of organisations to which it may be disclosed (if any) and the consequences for the individual if the individual fails to provide the information requested. Individuals may access the information and correct it if necessary.

In addition, where any law requires Giovenco Industries to collect information, the individual will be advised of the name of that law.

If you have disclosed information to Giovenco Industries in the course of applying for a position with the company, Giovenco Industries confirms that it retains no material relating to unsuccessful applications once the vacancy has been filled. Information provided in the course of applying for a position with Giovenco Industries is not disclosed to anyone outside the company.

If you have disclosed personal information in the course of an application for credit from Giovenco Industries the company will only disclose such information to the credit referees nominated by you and to its credit rating agency, for the purpose of dealing with your credit application. Should you fail to provide the information requested, your application for credit will not be processed.

Paul Giovenco

Group Managing Director

May 2013

